Prescott Young Professionals (PYP) is a dynamic group of young professionals within the 21-40 age group, sponsored by the Prescott Chamber of Commerce. PYP members serve the community in a variety of professions from young entrepreneurs and small business owners to artists, lawyers, salespeople and more.

PYP's mission is to together build a strong network of career driven individuals sharing the same passion for business and community service while striving to provide mentorship for the next generation of business leaders within the Prescott area.

Why should you attend?

- Business networking with peers
- Educational programs for business development and career enhancement
 - Service projects designed to enrich our community
 - Mentoring Prescott's youth to cultivate future leaders
 - Learning from successful business and community leaders

Are you a young, dynamic, young professional in the Prescott area? Then we need you!
